GOWRIE

IOWA

Your membership, no matter how great or how small, goes a long way in helping to support the Gowrie Development Commission and its efforts to strengthen the economy and community of Gowrie.

GDC volunteers are passionate about the community where they live and work. Not only do they want to see change and growth, but through partnerships in the community, they are also making it happen! Join us by being a member of the GDC in 2022 and be a part of keeping the "GO" in Gowrie!

Gowrie Development Commission's Recent Impact:

Housing – partnered with the City to develop 10 new housing lots in the Wiley Addition, created a housing incentive program for new construction which has or will be utilized for 5 new homes, created a housing brochure to give to realtors and prospective home builders; currently 4 new homes are being built in Gowrie

Image –formed the Neighbors Helping Neighbors cleanup program and Facebook page, created a Gowrie promotional video in addition to a video series highlighting local businesses, continued the Yard of the Week program

Membership & Business Development – continued communication through website & e-newsletter, continued ribbon cuttings, partnered with Heartland Bank to apply for and be awarded $15,000 for grocery store improvements, supported businesses through promotional opportunities

Downtown- hosted a downtown market and coordinated retail events
