NEW NEWS!

Introducing the revised newsletter from the Gowrie Development Commission! This occasional newsletter will include information highlighting the "Go in Gowrie!" Gowrie is a wonderful community with many amenities for you, your family and your business. This is a great way to highlight them. Help spread the word and forward this email to your friends and neighbors. On the left side of this newsletter you can find multiple ways to see what's going on in Gowrie: a new website, Facebook, Twitter, and a new event calendar.

Also newly revised is the Gowrie website! Assembled by the Gowrie Development Commission this site encompasses all aspects of Gowrie. This site will provide information for everyone whether you are looking to visit or have lived here for years! This updated look will help you visualize what makes our community special.

MEMBER TO MEMBER

Meet the GDC Board

The Gowrie Development Commission Board of Directors is made up of volunteers that live and work in Gowrie and desperately want to see our community improve and grow. Kudos to these individuals and the businesses that allow them to take time and focus on projects specific to Gowrie. Board members include:

- Mindy Swieter, Security Savings Bank
- Berna Tucker, Heartland Bank
- Marcie Boerner, Webster-Calhoun Cooperative Telephone

- Chelsea Worrel, Chelz Salon
- Marsha Farnham, Farm & Town Insurance
- Gayle Redman, City of Gowrie
- Chuck Angstrom, Utilities Board
- Kevin Black, Heartland Bank, also represents the GDC on the Board of the Greater Fort Dodge Growth Alliance
- Phillip DeCastro, The Drill Barbershop
- Brad Robey, Mulligans
