

THE GO-GETTER AWARD

The Gowrie Development Commission is now accepting nominations for the 2020 Go-Getter Award to be presented at the Spring Banquet. This prestigious award is the second annual award sponsored by the Gowrie Development Commission.

The Go-Getter Award celebrates the “Leadership, inspiration, generosity, and wisdom” of a professional in this community. This individual must contribute to the ‘Go in Gowrie’. This high level of accomplishment by a person in our community is acknowledged and honored through receiving this award from the Gowrie Development Commission.

To be a candidate for this award, the following criteria must be met:

1. The nominee must be an active, visible leader who is a Go-Getter for implementing actions that enhance the economic and civic environment of the community.
2. The nominee must consistently demonstrate excellence in their business, profession, or in community service.
3. The nominee must have contributed exemplary time and effort to promote community spirit, civic pride, and the “Go in Gowrie”.
